

Meet Ryan Hill

Ryan Hill has been working at Keller UMC for two and a half years doing the maintenance and custodial job. Ryan takes pride in fixing things around the church and keeping it clean and tidy. He enjoys his job at Keller UMC because it keeps him busy, as said in our interview with him, “Never a boring moment, which is good because I like to stay busy.”

Along with the physical aspects of the job, Ryan loves the people at Keller UMC, who always treat him with kindness and respect. When he isn't at work, he works out for 12-15 hours per week, claiming “I am a workout fanatic!”

Ryan also enjoys some great food. His favorite places to eat are Fresco's Tacos and Taverna Rossa. Along with working out and food, Ryan also loves sports, and is a Cowboys fan. If you ever need to contact Ryan, don't hesitate to send him an email at rhill333222@gmail.com.
